Message from Apostle Ssali

As tensions rise in the middle east and the Russia/Ukraine crisis could spark a third world war, with the puzzle of flight 370 Malaysian airline missing and the 8.5 earthquake that just hit South America, scripture is being fulfilled when you study Mathew 24:6-7. I believe it's time for the body of Christ to engage the enemy by stepping up the campaign of winning souls to Christ and demonstration of God's power. I believe God wants to save souls and bring them into His kingdom by using His children to hold firm unto the promises. It's time to encounter a close relationship with the Lord. You as His child connect with him and He will bless you. His promises are yes and amen. Everything God has promised to do He will do for His glory, but you must believe. It's time to stop praising the mountains in your life, but begin to lift up Jesus and see those mountains bow at the name of Jesus. Release your faith. There's no room for compromise. Don't let the intimidating tricks of the enemy break your focus. Start declaring what God's word says about your situation and expect a breakthrough. Rush in your prayer requests and I will stand with you in prayer!

Yours in Christ,
R. Ssali
Apostle Ronald Ssali

"God answers prayer. After suffering a major attack on my back that left me paralyzed doctors said I would never walk again. I was diagnosed with cancer in my spine, but at the crusade Apostle Ssali prophesied and prayed for me. I believed and received my miracle. God came through for me. Now I can walk and am happy to testify that Jesus is Lord. This is not the work of a man, but of the Holy spirit. Glory to God."

"I have a brother in Haiti who was sick near death. I called the ministry prayerline a month ago and placed his name on the prayer request list. Now, my brother is alive and well. All the glory belongs to God!"

The defendant surrendered before I even stepped a foot into the court room. Glory to God for this victory.”

Moreover, I kept experiencing this unnatural pain in my chest cavity. I became afraid and didn't understand. At one of our weekly services, on Forest Hill Boulevard, Apostle Ssali called me forward and prayed for me. He rebuked the spirit of death that was tormenting me. Within 3 days, my skin returned to it’s normality and I no longer have chest pain. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! There is no one like Jesus Christ!”
